

June is PRIDE Month

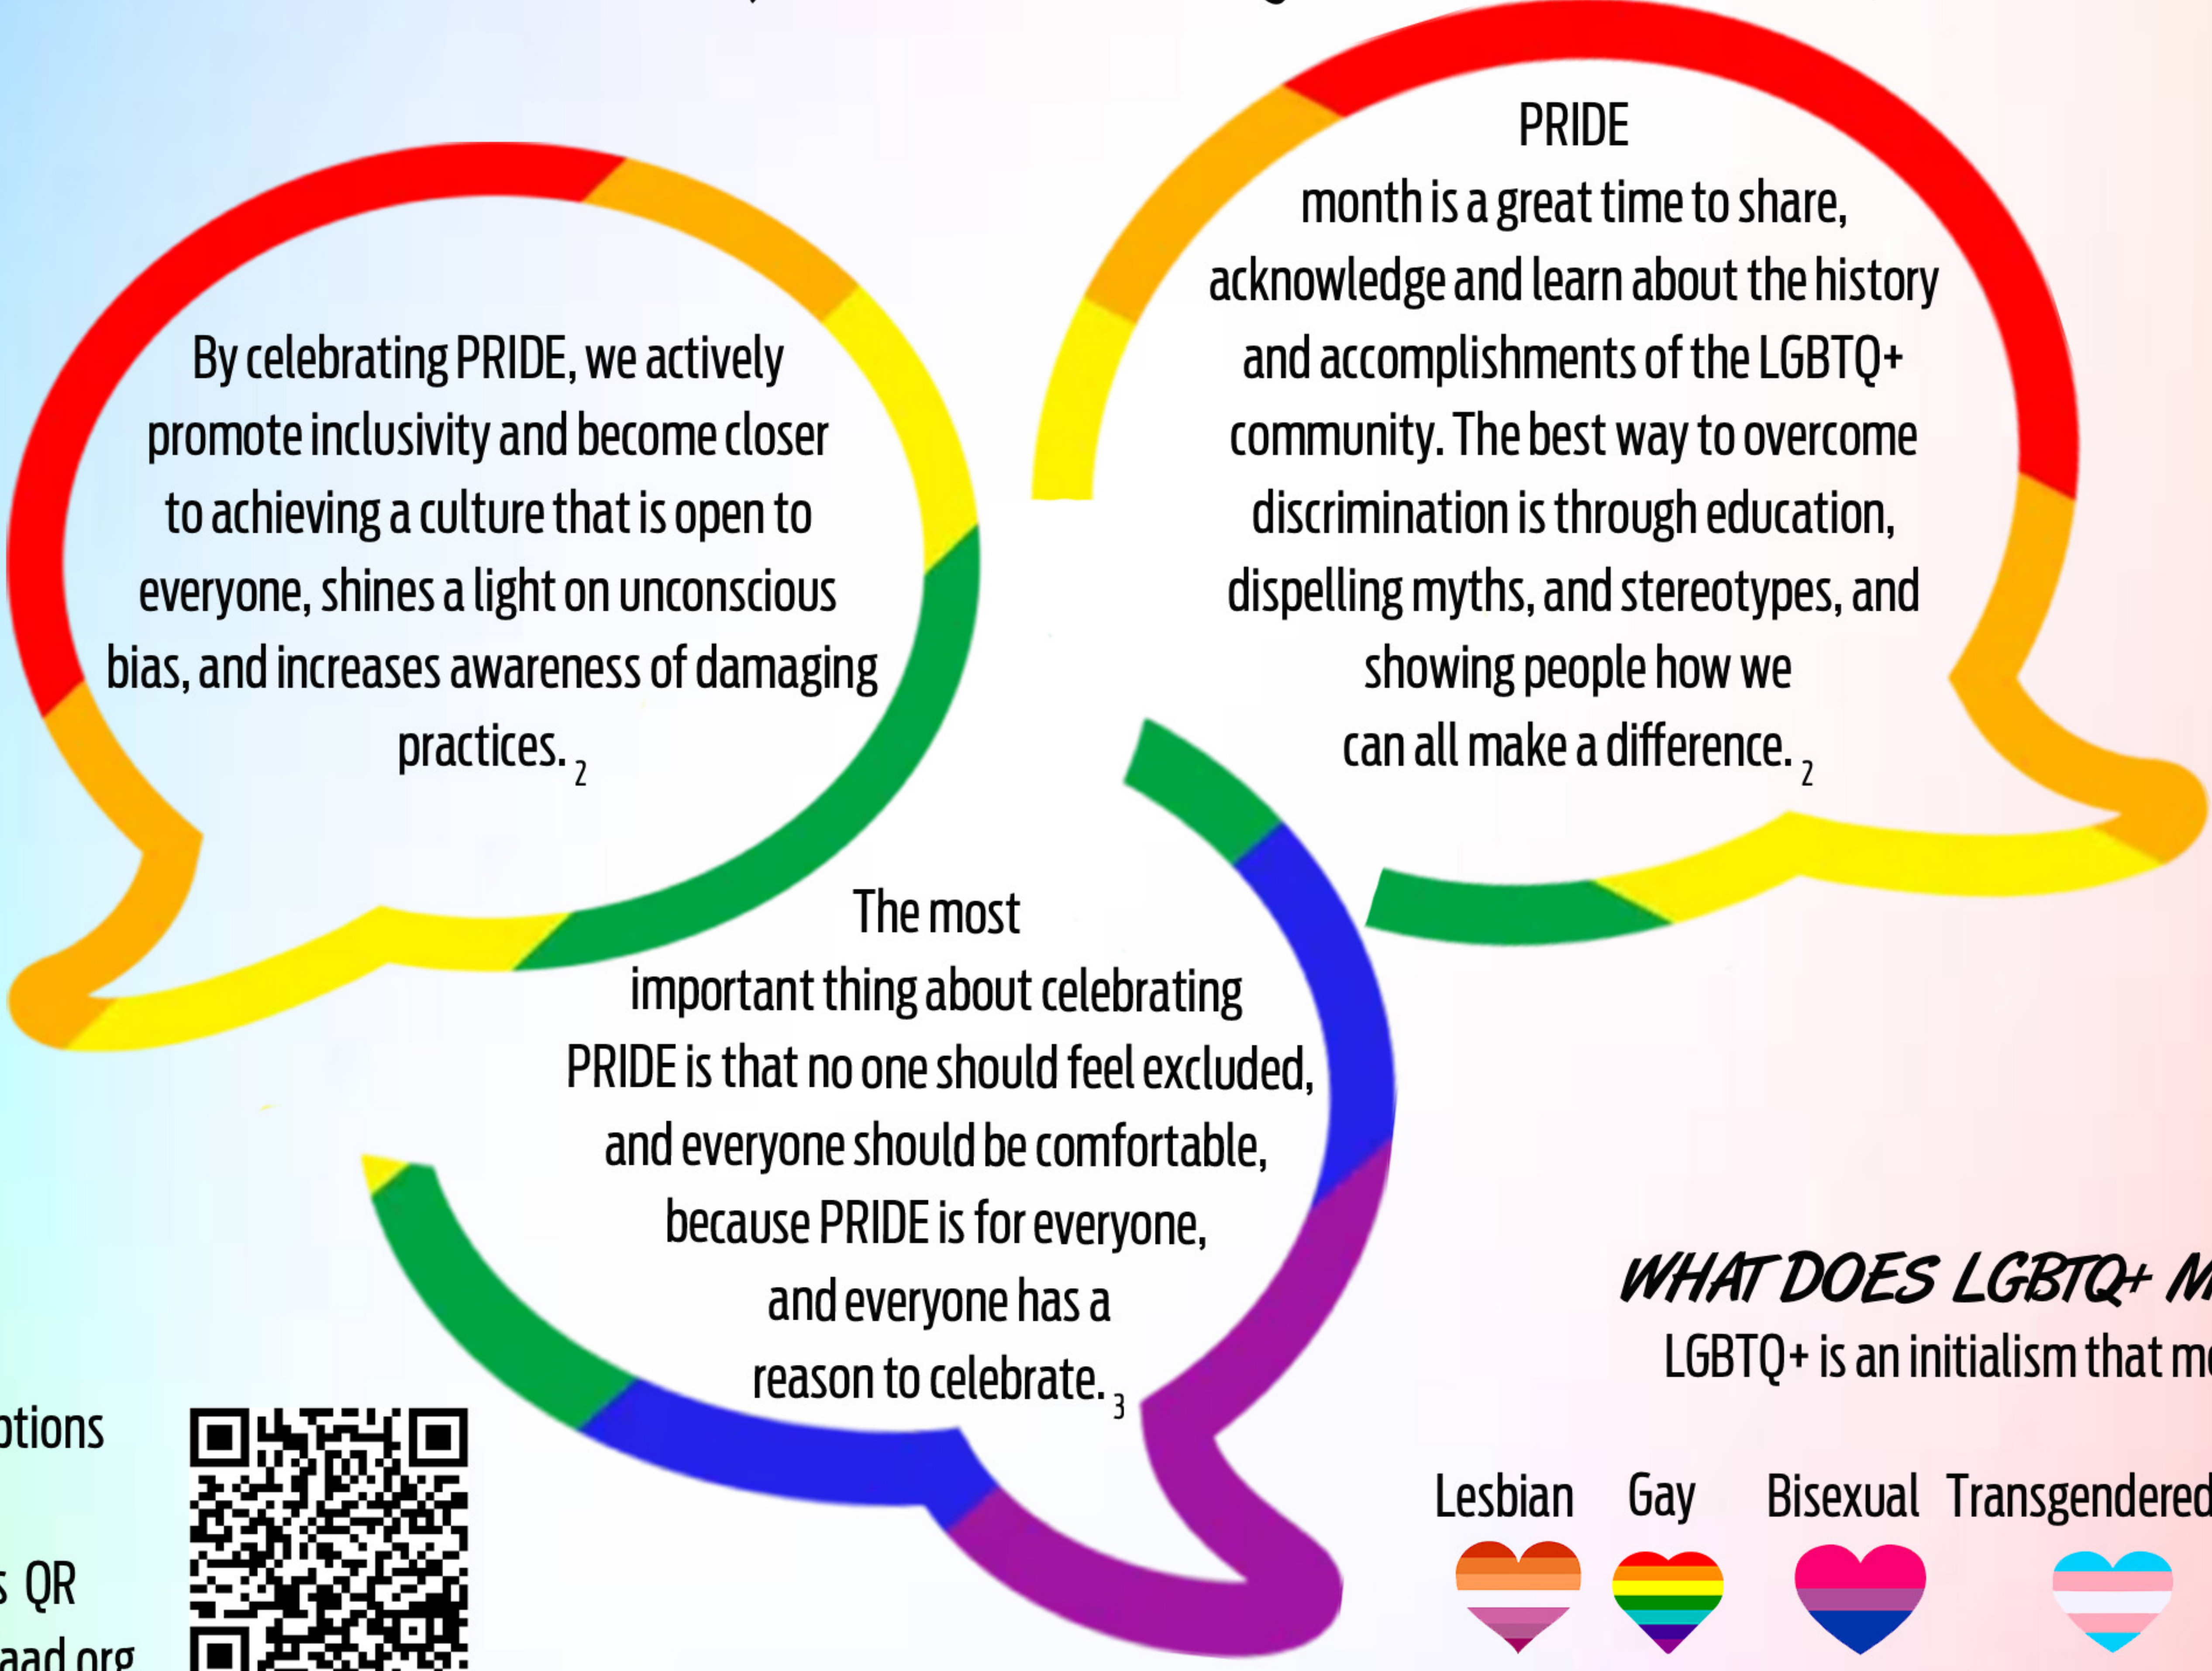

UAW-Ford Diversity Digest
June 2023

PRIDE commemorates the Stonewall Uprising, which took place in June 1969 in Manhattan, New York, making it one of the first movements demanding recognition and equal rights for the LGBTQ+ community. Since then, the movement has grown, and June is a month dedicated to the activism, recognition, appreciation, and celebration of members of this community.

Three Reasons Why Celebrating PRIDE is Important:
